Boston, June 11, 1869.

Dear Johnson:

I had hoped to send you an article for next week's Independent by this afternoon's mail, but cannot get it to you before Monday morning. Whether it will be practicable to insert it in your next, you can readily decide, as it will depend upon what you may have already in type. Let me add, that it is not at all a consideration with me whether my articles appear in one page of the paper more than another. At all times, put them where most convenient, or reserve them for the waste-basket.

I meant to have prepared the Testimonies you desired me to write for the Longwood meeting, and also a letter to be read on the occasion, but delayed too long in the matter. I have seen and heard nothing about the meeting, but trust you had the usual good time, with good speakers, and no drawback of any kind. I shall be glad to receive the particulars when you can find time to send them.

With love to Mary Ann, and kindest regards to all at Mrs. Savin's,

I remain,

Ever yours attached

W. L. G.
